

Job Description – Manager, Advisory Services

Reports to: Senior Manager, Principal and/or Partner

About Invictus Accounting Group LLP

We are not your typical CPA firm. Located in the heart of downtown Vancouver, Invictus Accounting Group provides consulting, accounting and tax advisory for publicly listed and privately held companies. We are creative problem solvers, strategic thinkers, and love what we do. Our team members gain experience in industry-like roles while benefitting from the variety and professional atmosphere of public practice.

Striving for balance, Invictus has a work environment where flexibility and family are as important as professionalism and premier service. Diverse and challenging work, and a fun, team-oriented atmosphere are a few of the many reasons we have very low employee turnover.

Job Overview

As part of Invictus' Advisory team, this is an exciting opportunity to lead project-based and recurring advisory projects for a diverse client base (mining, technology, government agency, R&D, etc). The Manager, Advisory Services (the "Manager") is part of an advisory team that helps create value through delivering responsive, practical, high quality financial reporting and technical advisory services to our clients. The Manager will be responsible to plan, execute, mentor staff and deliver on projects including quarterly public company financial reporting, assisting private companies listing on Canadian stock exchanges, financial planning and analysis, and other diverse advisory projects.

Key Accountabilities and Responsibilities

Management Responsibility: As a member of the Advisory team, leads advisory projects, including the development of project plans, mentorship and management of staff in the execution of projects, and leading communications with client CEOs, CFOs, controllers, and auditors. Exercises strong project management skills to ensure all projects are completed on target.

Service Orientation: Establishes professional relationships with client personnel, building trust in our advisory capacity with them. Maintains a strong service orientation, ensuring open and effective communication with clients. As part of client engagements, provides value-added, practical and pragmatic recommendations and improvement strategies.

Quality Assurance: Ensures maintenance of high standards and quality of advisory projects through the preparation and review of deliverables (working papers through to financial statements, MD&As, budgets, etc.).

Staff Management & Development: Contributes to the establishment of a clear definition of responsibility for each member of the team, the ongoing management, mentorship and support of staff, and effective employee performance management. The Manager will contribute to the team-based office culture, promoting open and transparent communication with all team members.

Education and Professional Skillset Requirements

Experience: Minimum four years progressively responsible experience in consulting or auditing, in public practice or with a publicly traded company, with a significant focus on financial reporting under IFRS.

Education: A professional accounting designation (CPA). All other finance/accounting designations considered an asset.

Technical Expertise: Proficiency in drafting financial statements to comply with IFRS, and a thorough understanding of public company reporting deadlines.

Project Management: Strong project management and people management experience including ability to supervise staff.

Style: Collaborative, team-oriented, high-energy, self-motivated, smart, performance driven, multi-tasker, confident. A strong commitment to professional and client service excellence. Contributes to a fun, social and successful work environment.

Language: Ability to communicate clearly and effectively, both orally and in writing, in English. Proficiency in Spanish and/or French is considered an asset.

Compensation

Invictus offers industry-competitive salaries, annual bonus opportunities, paid vacation and sick time, a health savings account, and professional development opportunities. Invictus is dedicated to helping all employees achieve work-life balance, valuing family and flexibility equally with professionalism and premier service.
